Senior Consultant

Katherine Molineux is a Senior Consultant in the Exhibition Studio. She is responsible for developing and facilitating exhibitions through interpretative planning, research, content development, coordination and project management.

Katherine honoured in History, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree, and a Master of Arts degree in History from the University of Western Ontario. An experienced educator and communicator, Katherine has worked at several museums in both Canada and the United States, where she developed and delivered programs to visitors of all ages and backgrounds. Her museum experience has given her insight into the needs and interests of the visitor, as well as encompassing the requirements of the museum staff.

As a member of the Exhibition Studio, Katherine strives to develop interpretive plans and exhibitions that connect people to culture. With her background as an educator, Katherine is sensitive to the different learning styles and needs of prospective visitors and incorporates this diversity into each project. She is an effective researcher and writer, creating museum spaces that communicate ideas and create interest for visitors of all ages.
