

DUSHANTHI JAYAWARDENA

Consultant

Dushanthi Jayawardena works in Exhibitions and Events at Lord Cultural Resources. She is responsible for a host of exhibition development services including interpretive planning, research, content development, and content coordination with design and fabrication.

Since joining Lord, Dushanthi has contributed to content development and interpretive planning for several museums including the University Of Michigan Museum Of Natural History, the Money Museum at the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago, the Miraflores Museum in Guatemala, and the Perlan Museum in Iceland.

In her role as consultant, Dushanthi brings to the table a lifelong interest in ancient and natural history, cultural heritage and the arts, and a keen desire to create well-thought-out exhibitions that instill memorable experiences for visitors, and deliver knowledge in engaging ways.

Dushanthi holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Art History from Hood College, Maryland and a Master of Arts degree in Museum Studies from the University of Florida. Prior to joining Lord Cultural Resources, Dushanthi worked at several museums and cultural institutions in the United States, Bahrain and Sri Lanka including the National Park Service, Samuel P. Harn Museum of Art and the Ontario Science Centre where she developed exhibits, conducted curatorial research, assisted in the management of collections and coordinated traveling exhibitions.
