

VALERIE GUEVARA

Office Manager / Research Consultant

As Office Manager, Valerie oversees the administrative and operations functions of our New York office. She works closely with our accounting, communications, IT and HR teams to provide administrative support.

As a research consultant Valerie contributes to environmental scans, literature reviews as well as market and comparables research to support a multitude of projects. Valerie also provides project management support for a variety of clients.

Current projects include a Strategic Plans for the Weeksville Heritage Center and the University of Florida Museum of Natural History, as well as the Detoit Cultural Plan.

Valerie received a Masters of Internatioanl Relations degree from the Université Panthéon-Assas Paris II, and a Bachelor's degree in Political Science with a focus International studies with a minor in Latin American Studies from the University of Central Florida. She also studied at the Université Sorbonne Paris IV where she majored in French Language and Civilization.

She is fluent in Spanish and French and has a working knowledge of Portuguese.