

BEYHAN KARACAOGLAN

Accounting Manager

Beyhan joined Lord Cultural Resources in 2012. She manages accounting for projects and handles general accounting for the organization.

Beyhan brings accounting, bookkeeping, and administrative experience from a variety of Canadian and international companies and industries.

Beyhan was Senior Financial Director for Istanbul-based Delta Group, an international importer and exporter of petroleum and LPG products. She spent three years running the offices of esteemed American Society of Media photographer Kerry Hayes. She also oversaw accounting for the printing company Artistat Canada.

As Accounting Manager, Beyhan undertakes a diverse range of accounting duties including billing, project analysis, collections, payables and banking related responsibilities in addition to supporting the CFO in financial statement preparation and financial reporting.

Beyhan holds an Honours certificate in Accounting and Business Administration from Humber College, is fluent in Turkish and English, and has experience in Arabic, Japanese, and French. Beyhan also completed postgraduate studies in Finance at Istanbul University's School of Business Administration.

If you have any accounting related inquiries please contact bkaracaoqlan@lord.ca and Beyhan will be happy to assist you.