

DOV GOLDSTEIN

Vice President

Dov Goldstein is a Senior Practice Leader at Lord Cultural Resources. With over 20 years of experience in cultural, interpretive and strategic planning, Dov has led and managed some of the firm's largest and most complex projects in Canada, the US and around the globe.

Dov works in both strategy and operations and exhibition development with particular specialization in master planning, strategic planning, interpretive planning and project management. In his 10 years with Lord, Dov has worked with a diverse roster of clients including museums, public libraries, public gardens, private companies and municipal, provincial and federal governments. Recent projects include the National Holocaust Monument in Ottawa, Jewish Museum of Canada in Toronto, Canada's Diversity Gardens in Winnipeg, Miami-Dade County Public Library System in Florida, Allan Gardens Conservatory, Toronto, Toronto Botanical Gardens and Edwards Gardens in Toronto, and the City of Brampton.

Prior to joining Lord Cultural Resources, Dov was Director of Exhibitions for Canada's leading design centre, the Design Exchange, where he developed, produced and managed well over 50 design exhibitions working with some of Canada's most renowned architects and designers. In addition, he organized and managed several traveling exhibitions working closely with the most prestigious museums and design centres from around the world including the famed Vitra museum in Germany and France's Centre Pompidou.

Dov was jointly responsible for the planning and development of the public spaces for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's national headquarters. This large-scale project was conceived of as a series of interactive exhibits, events and amenities within the building to facilitate public understanding of and support for Canada's national broadcaster.
