

Yasemin Celik

Accountant

Yasemin joined the Lord Cultural Resources' accounting team in 2021. She is responsible for managing projects and handling general accounting at Lord Cultural Resources.

Yasemin brings over fifteen years of accounting experience from her work in Canada and abroad. Prior joining Lord, she worked as Senior Accountant at Mey-Diageo Inc., one of the largest alcoholic beverages producers in the world, and as Accountant at Max Mara USA Inc.

In her role as Accountant at Lord, Yasemin undertakes a diverse range of accounting duties including billings, collections, payables, and banking related responsibilities in addition to supporting the Accounting Manager and the Chief Financial Officer.

Yasemin holds a master's degree in Accounting and Auditing from Okan University in Istanbul and earned her designation as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in 2013. She also instructed CPA courses at Deha Educational Institutions in Istanbul. Yasemin is fluent in English and Turkish.