

ISABELLA RIVERA RUIZ

Research and Administrative Associate

Isabella Rivera Ruiz is a Research and Administrative Associate in the US office at Lord. Her passion for art and consulting has led her to contribute her research skills to support environmental scans on multiple projects. Isabella also takes responsibility of monitoring Lord's media watch, assisting with project management, while simultaneously connecting the US President with a variety of potential cultural clientele.

Prior to Lord Cultural Resources, she worked at HERE Arts Center, New York and brings Lord her knowledge in development, museum work, Latinx art, marketing, and business administration.

Isabella acquired her MA in Arts Administration from Teachers College, Columbia University in the City of New York. She previously completed her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a focus in Marketing and a Minor in Art from the University of Puerto Rico at Mayagüez, and also studied abroad to UMass Amherst and Cornell University.

She is fully bilingual in Spanish and English.
