

REBECCA FREROTTE, MMST, MI, BA (HONS). Librarian/Consultant

While based in the Toronto office, as Librarian/Consultant, Rebecca supports all our offices on a diversity of projects from conception to realization. Rebecca supports on projects within our strategy, exhibitions and events, and facility streams.

Rebecca provides essential support to consultants with report writing, background research for literature reviews, environmental scans, and data analysis. Rebecca works collaboratively to provide accurate, insightful, strategic recommendations and content that are solution-based and grounded in thorough and comprehensive research methods.

Prior to joining Lord, Rebecca worked with the Aurora Museum & Archives, the John M. Kelly Library, the City of St. Catharines, Culture for Kids in the Arts, the Town of Fort Erie- Museum Services, and the Royal Ontario Museum.

Rebecca graduated from the University of Toronto with concurrent Masters in Museum Studies and Masters of Information, specializing in Archives and Records Management, and from Carleton University with a Bachelors of Arts, highest honours, in Art History.

If you have any conference or speaking engagement related inquiries for Lord staff please contact library@lord.ca and Rebecca will be happy to assist you.