

REBECCA FREROTTE, MMST, MI, BA (HONS).

Librarian/ Research Consultant

Rebecca Frerotte joined Lord Cultural Resources in 2015 as Library Assistant while she was completing concurrent Masters in Museum Studies and Masters of Information at the University of Toronto. Rebecca's previous work experience includes working as a Resource Sharing Assistant at the John M. Kelly Library, a Co-op focused in Human Resources records management at the City of St. Catharines, an Apprentice Coordinator/Development Apprentice at Culture for Kids in the Arts in Hamilton Ontario, a Contract Collections Assistant at the Corporation of the Town of Fort Erie, Museum Services and an internship at the Royal Ontario Museum (ROM) with a focus on the Department of World Cultures Of Africa project.

As Librarian/ Research Consultant, Rebecca provides library, research and project, marketing, and administrative support. This includes managing and maintaining our corporate library, conducting project related research, contributing to events and promotion related to Lord publications, the creation of communications content, and managing the coordination of Lord's conference and event participation.

As Research Consultant, Rebecca assists on multiple projects, providing essential support to consultants with report writing, background research for literature reviews and environmental scans and data analysis. Notable project contributions include:

- Strategic Planning for Oakville Public Library, (Oakville, Canada)
- Interpretive Planning and content research for al Shindagha Museum (Dubai, UAE)
- Research for exhibition content for the Montreal Biosphere, (Montreal, Canada)
- Indexing The Manual of Museum Learning, Second Edition,
- Environmental scan for Cannakale Children's Center, (Cannakale, Turkey)
- Event facilitation for Myseum of Toronto and Under Gardiner projects, (Toronto, Canada).

If you have any conference or speaking engagement related inquiries for Lord staff please contact library@lord.ca and Rebecca will be happy to assist you.