

Mira Ovanin

Executive Assistant

Since 1996 Mira Ovanin, has been providing strong administrative and organizational support to the Lord Cultural Resources Executive office on a multitude of projects throughout the world.

Mira's solid background in the field of arts and culture and experience gained at Lord Cultural Resources have provided her with a special insight into the importance of cultural planning to the vitality of communities.

Mira's Bachelor's Degree of English and English Literature from the University of Belgrade, Yugoslavia, as well as her previous experience as an interpreter, translator, and legal secretary have armed her with the skills necessary to navigate complex everyday situations.

To coordinate making contact with Gail or Barry Lord, please contact Mira at movanin@lord.ca and she will be happy to assist you.